

LEISURE & LUXURY

IN THE AGE OF NERO

THE VILLAS OF OPLONTIS NEAR POMPEII

FEBRUARY 19–MAY 15, 2016

The special exhibition “Leisure and Luxury in the Age of Nero: The Villas of Oplontis near Pompeii” explores the lavish lifestyle and economic interests of ancient Rome’s wealthiest citizens from the time of Julius Caesar (around 50 BC) to the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in AD 79.

OPENING LECTURE AND RECEPTION

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 6 PM

Pendleton Room, Michigan Union

Professor John R. Clarke.

Reception following at Kelsey Museum

CURATOR TOUR

Sunday, February 21, 2–3 PM

Elaine K. Gazda

FAMILY DAY

Saturday, April 9, 12:30–3:30 PM

Explore... Discover... Create...

DROP-IN-TOUR

Sunday, March 13, 2–3 PM

Lynley McAlpine

FILM SCREENING

Thursday, May 5, 7 PM

“The Last Days of Pompeii”

KMA KELSEY MUSEUM OF ARCHAEOLOGY
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

434 South State Street Ann Arbor, MI 48109-1390

For more information, visit www.lsa.umich.edu/kelsey